

Kaniet language

The Kaniet languages were two of four Western Admiralty Islands languages, a subgroup of the Admiralty Islands languages, the other two being Wuvulu-Aua and Seimat. The languages were spoken on the Kaniet Islands (Anchorite Islands) in western Manus Province of Papua New Guinea until the 1950s.^[2]

Two languages were spoken on the islands, one reported by Thilenius and one by Dempwolff.^[3]
